2/ The present rule may keep off many capable candidates from competing for the exam[n] and thus reduce the number from which Govt hope to recruit their Municipl. As matters stand at present, a ~~fair~~ average student takes a degree in Law in his 24[th] or 25[th] year, and for enrolment as an Advocate he has to pass the Exam[n] in the Law of Practice and Procedure and this will take another year. He must practise for 4 years as an Advocate before he can sit for the exam[n], when he will have 5 years standing for the Exam[n]. But if he enters Service in the middle after practising as an Advocate for 2 or 3 years, the rule requires that the total period should be 5 years, and that the candidate must be below 30 years. This will work as a great hardship on the Advocates who leaden entering Service. The rule as it exists now will practically keep off ~~those~~ gradually those practising Advocates from competing for the exam[n]. But that such an exclusion is not the object of Govt is clear from the express provision for admitting men in Service. There does not appear to be any justification for this anomaly. ~~Here~~ On principle it seems objectionable to grant exemp

(5) In connection with the competitive examination for recruitment to the grade of Munsiffs to be held in April 1918, the Chief Court recommended that Mr. B. Ramanna, B.A.,LL.B., clerk, Chief Court might be specially allowed to sit for the examination though his case did not satisfy the condition laid down in paragraph 2 (1) of Government Order No.J.2643-Cts.-199-14-4 dated 25th January 1917.

(6) 2. On principle it was considered objectionable to grant exemptions in individual cases, but in view of the 30 years' age limit specified in paragraph (2) -(iii) of the Government order referred to, operating as a bar in respect of many Law Graduates who have entered Government service, and reducing the number of candidates from whom selection might be made, it was proposed to raise the age limit to 35 years in the case of all classes of candidates. The Judges of the Chief Court, who were consulted in the matter, are agreeable to this suggestion.

(7) 3. The draft order prepared accordingly may be graciously approved.

JUDICIAL
6- DEC 1917

S i r,

I am directed to state that Mr. B. Ramanna B.A., LL.B., a clerk of this Court in the Rs.80-4-100 grade has represented that he entered the Government service after a practice of one year at the bar as an Advocate of this Court with the hope of rising to the judicial offices in the near future but that the Munsiffs' competitive examination rules do not give him an opening to the judicial offices as he will not have put in a service of five years before he attains 30 years of age as required by the rules to enable him to sit for the examination. His is a particularly hard case as he can neither resign his post nor retain it without any prospect of promotion. As he will be age-barred by the time he puts in a total service of five years, I am to request that the Government may be pleased to consider his case favourably and to allow him to sit for the next examination to be held in April 1918, as a special case.

I have the honor to be,
